FRIDAY EVENING. SEPT. 9, 1904.

Damage by Waves. From many points along the southern coast of California come reports of damage by great billows, which are relling in from the sea occasioned by some peculiar phenomenon, possibly vol-canic disturbances far out in the ocean, While there is scarcely a cupful of wind, enormous waves, in some instances 40 feet high, roll ceaselessly against the shores. Word comes that the wharf at Hueneme is doomed to total destruction.
At Terminal Island the sea has wrought considerable havoe, and hundreds of men are at work piling up sacks of sand to form breakwaters. Several cottages are inundated. At Long Beach and at Ocean Park the pleasure wharves have been much damaged, and uo one is permitted to go on them. The heavy seas have been running for several days, but yesterday they were higher than before, and more damage may be done.

The United States Weather Bureau reports that yesterday was the hottest September day ever known in San Francisco. At 2:45 p. m. the thermometer at the government station on top of an eleven story building indicated 100.2 degrees, and the temperature was higher on grees, and the temperature was higher on Threatened Lynching.

Fifteen hundred residents of the North Side Italian settlement in Chicago have threatened to lynch the motorman and conducter of a trolley car which ran over and killed Manelo Manzello, seven years old, and seriously injured Stephen Las-colia, six years old. The children were crossing the street when they were struck. News of the accident spread rapidly, and the men of the district gathered. Threats were made against gathered. Threats were made against the motorman and the conductor, but the mob was checked by Patrick Reardon, who had carried the Lascolia boy to the sidewalk. Reardon leaped on the front platform of the car and told Motorman Axel Anderson to arm himself with the controller and strike the first person to the streked him. Anderson followed who attacked him. Anderson followed directions, and was guarding himself against the angry crowd when a wagon load of policemen reached the scene. Anderson and the conductor, Fred Smith, were taken to the police station.

Mr. R. M. Peach has purchased the Joe Thomas farm, situated at the foot of the mountain, in Loudoun, some four miles north of this place, and will move to his new home late this fall.

Twins Weighed Less Than 2 Pounds. John Bliss, of Rockaway, walked into Bellevue Hospital in New York Wednes-Bellevue Hospital in New York Wednesday night with a pastboard box under his arm. "My wife gave birth to twins today," he said, "but they were so small I was afraid they would not live. A friend told me the only place they could be saved was here. I have them in this box. One of them is a boy, the other is a girl." When the box was opened it was found that the boy was dead. The girl was still alive, but she died an hour afterward. The combined died an hour afterward. The combined weight of the twins was less than two pounds. Bliss was disconsolate over his

VAN CAMP'S BAKED BEANS just re-cived by J. C. MILEURN,

MISS MONIE BOWEY, DETROIT, MICHIGAN.

A couple of winters ago I slipped on a frozen sidewalk and fell flat on my back. On being examined I found that I had sustained internal injuries which laid me up for more than two months. After that I noticed that I had pains in the back and groin which I never had before. I doctored and doctored for several months but as the pains increased instead of growing better I decided that I was not having the right treatment. Reading in the papers of the wonderful cures performed by Wine of Cardui I wrote to one of the parties and received a very satisfactory reply and I immediately sent for some. In a very short time I felt generally better and after seven weeks faithful use I was once more well and strong. Thave never had a sick hour since and I daily bless your splendid medicine.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.
